

Stoneham Chamber of Commerce

February 2010 Multi-Chamber Business Card Exchange and Networking Event

Guest Speaker - Chris Stevens

Vice President Corporate Relations and Customer Development and one of the founders of Keurig, Inc. – makers of Premium Coffee Systems

Chris is responsible for building the Keurig brand through outreach efforts to the media, key customers, trade associations, and other influence groups. Chris joined Keurig in 1996 as one of the original members of the Senior Team bringing 20 years experience on consumer goods sales & marketing as well as general management. He is responsible for starting the "Away From Home" business for the company. Chris received his BS from Notre Dame and completed the Executive Education program at Columbia Business School.

Chris is also the author of "Fighting to Give ... The Jimmy Culveyhouse Story" a Notre Dame classmate who died after a courageous battle against ALS. Jimmy's story reads like a combination of Rudy, Forest Gump, Tuesdays With Morrie and Caddie For Life. Rejected three times to get into ND after earning nine letters in high school in Gary Indiana, he finally realized his dream and got in on a probationary basis. Only 5'6", he walked onto the golf team, earned four letters at ND and set the course record at 64...which still stands!
